IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA

IN AND FOR MARICOPA COUNTY

CRIM MISC
(IN RE 494 GJ 156)

v.

STEPHEN WETZEL, ANDREW KUNASEK,
SANDRA WILSON, GARY DONAHOE,
THOMAS IRVINE, AND DAVID SMITH,

494 GJ 156

SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADING TO STATE'S REQUEST TO UNSEAL TRANSCRIPTS,
EXHIBITS AND OTHER MATTERS
ATTENDANT TO 494 GJ 156

(Assigned to the Honorable Monica Stauffer)

(filed under seal)

The State of Arizona, through undersigned counsel, has contacted all the individuals and/or their attorneys who were the subjects of 494 GJ 156 to determine if they have any objection to the release of the aforementioned grand jury material.

Counsel for the State had contact with David Smith and his attorney Michael Black on August 2, 2010 and August 3, 2010 respectively. David Smith supports the release of the grand jury material.

Counsel for the State had contact with Michael Manning, attorney for Sandra Wilson, on August 2, 2010. Sandra Wilson supports the release of the grand jury material.

Counsel for the State had contact with Lee Stein and Jordan Green, attorneys for Judge Donahoe, on August 2, 2010 and August 3, 2010 respectively. Judge Donahoe supports the release of the grand jury material.

Counsel for the State had contact with David Derrickson, attorney for Andrew Kunasek, on August 2, 2010. Andrew Kunasek supports the release of the grand jury material.

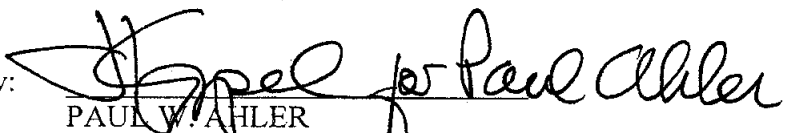

Counsel for the State had contact with Thomas Irvine on August 2, 2010 and August 3, 2010. Thomas Irvine supports the release of the grand jury material.

Counsel for the State had contact with Stephen Wetzel on August 3, 2010 and August 4, 2010. Stephen Wetzel supports the release of the grand jury material.

The State renews its request to unseal transcripts, exhibits, and other materials attendant to 494 GJ 156. This would include transcripts, instructions to the 494 Grand Jury at their orientation, exhibits, draft indictments, and any other matter attendant to this grand jury proceeding. The State would request the names of the individual Grand Jurors remain under seal to protect their privacy interests.

Respectfully submitted this 4th day of August, 2010.
